

I am biting my tongue so as not to use profanity but you have got to be kidding. Why would you think that you have the right to force me to receive unwanted telephone calls? I have requested to be free of such intrusions and yet here you are not doing your job right again. Please stop destroying public airways and please do not allow others to invade my privacy with sales pitches. Thank you.